JANSEN ROASTED

By Dave Martin at a Republican
Club Meeting Last Night.

CHEERS GREETED MR. MARTIN

And Altogether it was a Very Uncomfortable Evening for the Young Man from Denmark—The Meeting was Largely Attended and the Speeches Were Received With Considerable Enthusiasm.

Last night at the Elm Grove town hall the Triadelphia District Republican Club held the most largely attended and enthusiastic meeting in the history of the club.

A number of the candidates were present and made speeches, which were received with enthusiastic approval. Among those who spoke were Addison Israel, Lester Smith, G. C. Jansen, Charles Selbert, Ralph McCoy, Dave Martin and John Arbenz, Jr., Triadelphia district's candidate for prosecuting attorney. Captain Travis sent his regrets, as he was not able to be present on account of sickness in his family.

The feature of the meeting was the war of words between David W. Martin and Gerhardt C. Jansen, the latter late of Denmark, and who has become imbued with the idea that he would make an excellent candidate for prosecuting attorney on the Republican ticket. Mr. Martin assailed the "anti-ring" apostle for his mode of campaign, especially his conduct in allowing Democrats and the Democratic organ to make a tool of him. If Mr. Jansen had a grievance, inquired Mr. Martin, why didn't he rush to the Register with it; why didn't he go to the Intelligencer, whose columns are open to all Republicans for the discussion of party issues in a decent manner? Mr. Martin also accused Jansen of playing a Shylock role while in Cuba with the Immunes; that he had extorted $2 for loans of $1. Did he do this in anticipation of spending the money at a Democratic newspaper office in having "anti-ring" dodgers printed? inquired the speaker. Mr. Martin's remarks were greeted with applause.

In his reply, which was very weak, Jansen said he had brought communications to the Intelligencer fifty times and this paper had declined to receive them. Mr. Jansen is evidently in a mental nightmare, for he did nothing of the sort.

The next meeting of the club will be held shortly after the primaries.

LESTER SMITH FOR ASSESSOR.

A Friend Gives Reasons For His Nomination Next Saturday.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR:—Some reasons why Lester Smith should receive favorable consideration at the coming Republican primary election:

First—He is competent, and in every way qualified to fill the position.

Second—No man ever asked the support of his fellow Republicans who is more deserving from a party standpoint than Lester Smith. He has worked in season and out of season for the success of the Republican party and all of its candidates for the last twenty years, without reward.

Third—He is a working man, and has worked all his life for other people by the day. He was in the employ of the Wheeling & Elm Grove Railway Company for more than twenty years, and working men will support one of their own when they know him to be competent and worthy. Lester Smith is both.

Fourth—And if ever there has been a time when it was opportune and to the interest of the Republican party to nominate a new man, and say, "Well done, good and faithful servant, you have done well, come up higher," Saturday, April 28, is the time, and Lester Smith is the man, and if nominated he will surely be elected, and if elected the people will find that the office will be filled with ability and discretion.

Becker Withdraws.

Charles Becker, of Washington district, has withdrawn from the race for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, leaving the field to Messrs. Rawling and Danner.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Messrs. Robert S. Irwin and Thomas P. Thomas returned yesterday from a three months' trip to Florida and Havana, and in two weeks, accompanied by Fred Meyer, they will leave for a jaunt through Europe, incidentally visiting the Paris Exposition. Mr. Irwin was not favorably impressed with the opportunities at present for American investors in Cuba, saying they were about on a par with those offered in Mexico, but he thought they would be if the bulk of trade should pass from Spanish to American control. On the fine fishing in Florida he was more eloquent.

Dr. J. F. Smith, surgeon at the Reynolds hospital, at Glendale, returned last night from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Steamship Agent H. F. Behrens has received a postal card from Mr. W. O. McCluskey, dated on board the Hamburg-American liner, Waverence, off Plymouth, England, in which the Wheeling man says: "We had a splendid voyage. Neither myself or wife have been sick a minute. The officers of this ship are the kindest and most attentive I have ever heard of."

TERMINAL SALE MAY 22.

Special Master Hubbard Has Fixed the Date of the Foreclosure Sale. There Will Likely be Several Bidders.

It is learned that Special Master Nelson C. Hubbard, named by Judge Jackson to conduct the sale of the Wheeling Bridge & Terminal Railway Company's properties in Wheeling and vicinity, has fixed the date of the sale—May 22. The bridge, railway, other property and all rights and franchises are to be included in the sale, which is to satisfy the first mortgage bonds held by the Washington Trust Company, of New York. The entire property will be sold in one parcel, and the complainant or other holders of bonds may bid. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

It is intimated that the Baltimore & Ohio, Wheeling & Lake Erie, Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling and possibly other railroad companies will be in the field as bidders for this valuable property.

The programme of exercises will be diversified and meritorious. Some of the features will be tumbling, fencing, parallel and horizontal bar exercises, torch swinging, high diving and fancy drills. A large audience is assured. Seats will be on sale at the Opera House box office Monday morning.
